2014 CDYST Holiday Open Wrap-up

Jonathan Bowman of Peru rolled a 919 four-game series to win his record seventh Capital District Youth Scholarship Tour title in the 2014 CDYST Holiday Open held at Towne Bowling Academy on Sunday and Monday December 28th and 29th. 53 talented bowlers combined for a Holiday Open record 87 total entries in this special event where they could compete anytime during the tournament hours and re-enter as often as they would like.

Bowman entered for the first time early on Sunday and took the lead with an 848 four-game series. He re-entered and raised the bar to 869 as competition ended on Day 1. Returning in late morning on Monday, Bowman entered with Casey Schoonmaker of Albany as a doubles partner; the duo took the lead in that optional event. Schoonmaker rolled two strikes in the tenth frame of his fourth game to surpass Bowman in the singles event with an 878 series.

Bowman entered once more as part of the final group of bowlers to compete on Day 2. After a 236 in Game 1, he rolled the first eight strikes in route to a 277 game; and followed with 225. He would finish his series with 181 to post a new leading score of 919. Competing at the same time, Christopher Hanson of Ballston Lake began with games of 200, 243 and 252 to put himself in position to take the lead with one game remaining; as Bowman had already completed his series. Hanson would finish with an 868 series to move into third place. Bowman earned a $350 scholarship for his third victory of the season; Schoonmaker won a $200 scholarship for his third consecutive runner-up finish; Hanson earned a $125 scholarship.

In the Girls Division, Jenna Lemke of Delmar entered late on Sunday morning and rolled 621 in her final three games to finish with a 767 series and edge Haley Groat of Mechanicville, who had posted a leading score of 755 just prior to Lemke finishing. Natasha Bidwell of Schenectady rolled a 740 series midday on Monday to finish third. Lemke and Groat earned $200 and $130 scholarships, respectively; Bidwell could not accept her prize because of NCAA regulations.
